Background

Dave is the Principle and Sr Consultant with Action to Excellence, Inc. (ATX)

ATX serves clients nationally and internationally in areas of:

- Leadership Development
- Change Management
- Lean & Lean-Sigma (process improvement)

Services / Knowledge Matrix:

Organizational Development	Lean implementation
Executive-level Coaching	Lean-Sigma Methods
Collaborative Work Environments	Strategic Planning
Organizational Change	Human Resource Management

During Dave's 30+years of operational and human resource management experience he has developed a collaborative engineering approach and performance blueprint to help organizations measurably optimize their performance and improve their competitive position.

In addition to his consulting work, Dave is the Director of Human Resources and Organization Development for a private equity corporation, with oversight responsibilities for 5 world-class multi-national companies with locations throughout the country. In this role, Dave provides direction for nationwide HR efforts including recruiting, benefits, compensation, and training; and lean implementation and CQI initiatives to all company locations.

Dave offers his clients a unique perspective on organization development that he has gained in over 30-years of corporate experience. He blends this experience with private and public sector consulting, and works extensively with organizations involved in building collaborative environments and restructuring initiatives. He provides clients with opportunities to view themselves differently thus enabling them to tap into their hidden potential to achieve results.
